district, offering a refined residential experience within one of the city's most dynamic and walkable new neighborhoods.

Representing a major residential milestone within the Nora District, the project seamlessly blends elevated living with the energy of a design-forward, community-centric environment. The anticipated groundbreaking is mid-2027 and completion is slated for 2029. Douglas Elliman Development Marketing will serve as the exclusive sales and marketing for the project, bringing deep market experience and a tailored sales strategy.
